

RULE 53. TERMINAL WORK. Rules governing allowance of both initial terminal time or work and final terminal time or work, apply to local freight as well as through freight, except that on trips in local freight service of less than 100 miles, allowed initial and final terminal time will be added to the miles or time and not less than 100 miles allowed for the combined service. time or work, apply to local freight as well as through freight, except that on trips in local freight service of less than 100 miles, allowed initial and final terminal time will be added to the miles or time and not less than 100 miles allowed for the combined service.